

Job Description

Job title: Exhibition Stand Builder

Responsible to: Managing Director

Job purpose:

- To construct exhibition and display stands and related structures in a variety of materials and to a very high standard.
- To deliver and install exhibition stands and displays throughout the UK and internationally.
- To effectively work with colleagues and external contractors when they are employed as part of a job for GH Display.
- To competently complete the following trades as part of the exhibition design, build and installation service:
 - Carpentry
 - Basic electrical work
 - Carpet fitting
 - General decorating and finishing
 - Graphic installation
- Work with the Project Managers to arrange the logistics of each project.
- Responsible for complying with health and safety in-line with the relevant GH Display policies and the specific exhibition organisers health and safety regulations.
- To communicate effectively with colleagues and customers.
- To learn and work with new exhibition systems.
- To communicate effectively with colleagues and customers.
- To maintain a clean, tidy and safe workshop area.
- To effectively manage your own time, priorities and workload.
- To conduct yourself and carry out any work for the business in line with GH Display policies and procedures.
- To complete any other tasks that are deemed as reasonable.

Date job description created: April 2019